

Cumberland County Library System Foundation Names Quin Hock, Administrative Assistant and Local System Administrator at Amelia Givin Library, Library System December 2022 Employee of the Month

Mechanicsburg, PA—Quin Hock, Administrative Assistant and Local System Administrator at Amelia Givin Library, has been named Employee of the Month for December 2022 by the Cumberland County Library System Foundation.

Mechanicsburg, PA - Quin started at the Amelia Givin Library in June of 2006 as a part-time Library Assistant. At the time, she was working as a paraprofessional at the Carlisle School District and wanted another part-time position. When she started, she worked three Saturdays a month and some evenings at the circulation desk at Amelia Givin Library in addition to working a full day at the school.

Very quickly, Quin became an integral part of the library and when the opportunity opened up in July of 2008, she accepted a newly created full-time job as Administrative Assistant. This position has grown over the years to include doing a little bit of everything, including providing technical services, serving as the library's Local System Administrator, fundraising, and completing many important tasks behind the scenes. She enjoys working at the circulation desk when she has the opportunity to interact with patrons as well.

Quin has a wonderful work ethic, always willing to do whatever is needed. Her genuine interest in learning new things makes her a perfect fit for her "jack of all trades" job at the library. Board member (and former Children's Assistant) Lin Anderson says "Quin handles whatever comes her way with professionalism, promptness, and politeness. If you ask her to do something, no matter how big, small, annoying, boring, or whatever, you know it will be taken care of quickly and well." Quin's background in customer service and love of connecting with people makes her a natural at what she does. She represents the library with the highest integrity and dedication.

When she isn't working, Quin enjoys time with family including three granddaughters. She likes reading, canning, and settling into her new house.
